$100,000 in H. H. Tuttle's combination washer in Kansas (on five firm). The machine is on exhibition at fair grounds, for the first time exhibited east of the Rocky mountains. The patent is less than a year old. No washer has made such a success as this combination, being a perfect machine. Kansas contains 100 counties, 30 machines a month is a low estimate, giving 2,000 machines a month that Wichita could procure the manufacture of. I will give liberal terms on sales of state rights. Should some one in Wichita not see it to their interest to procure the patent, I go to Topeka. Address me at fair grounds or European. d109-119

Mrs. Kramer, who has for years stood at the head of the fashionable millinery in Wichita, is spending a few weeks in the eastern cities, making selections from all the choice novelties of the season. ## A CARD OF THANKS.

WICHITA, Kan., Sept. 22, 1886.

We desire to extend our thanks to the chief of the fire department, Mr. A. G. Walden, for the ability and care displayed in stopping the flames, and saving our property from destruction. We congratulate the city on securing the services of Mr. Walden.

Kansas Furniture Co.
J. V. Moffitt, Pres.
Star Livery Stable,
G. A. English, Prop.

AT THE OPERA HOUSE.

The third presentation of the Devil's Auction drew a good sized audience and the play was received with as much applause as on the preceding evenings. The company during their stay in this city have won golden opinions not only on account of their superiority of their entertainment but also their conduct as ladies and gentlemen. They leave this morning at 9:25 for Emporia. Tonight the Willard Lyceum company opens with "The Two Orphans" for a run of three nights.

Y. M. C. A. ANNIVERSARY EXERCISES.

The Young Men's Christian association is to be congratulated in securing so able a lecturer as the Rev. Mr. George, of Topeka, to deliver their first anniversary address at the anniversary exercises next Monday evening, at the first M. E. church. We understand that this will be Mr. George's first trip to Wichita and let us bespeak for him a large attendance. Several very choice selections will be rendered by the quartette of St. John's Episcopal church in connection with the exercises.

COLLISION.

Yesterday evening about 6 o'clock what might have been a serious accident happened on the West side. The street was full of vehicles; two ladies living on the West side were driving in a carriage up Chicago avenue, going in the same direction and near them were two hacks, coming towards their vehicle was one of the large express wagons that carry passengers to the fair. In attempting to pass the latter the carriage was crowded upon the street car track and run into. The ladies were by the breaking of the axle and wheel thrown upon the ground; but fortunately escaped any serious injuries. The horse ran for some distance but was soon captured.
